Five levels to explore in the heart of Aldgate East, just a stone's throw away from The City.

Originally home to a famous East-End traders' hall (the People's Mission Hall), the space has the hustle and bustle of industry in its bones as well as a giving heart: the building was home to the Salvation Army's HQ for many years.

Whitechapel's local craft, community, multiculturalism and progressivness has been woven into the site's design.

Flexible workspace for purpose-driven businesses

We are on a mission to change the way the world works for good. To challenge the workplace sector by building and supporting a community of purpose driven organisations that believe business should be a force for good. We continually strive to unite businesses, leaders and movements, inspire them through community, collaboration, content and amplify their great work to the wider business world.

x+why's innovative green workspaces support communities of businesses, employees, and leaders who believe that business should be used as a force for good.

Each of our sites is designed with its own unique heritage and character in mind, filled with locally sourced furniture and art, and all the mod-cons you would expect.

Our members enjoy private offices, creative breakout areas, and outdoor space, as well as a shared cultural programme of events, access to meeting rooms, "Zoom Booths", events space, and more.
